

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. NOTE.—The allowance of $10 per month for responsibility with regard to clothing, &c., is made to—

1. The senior or commanding marine officer, in a squadron.
2. The senior or commanding officer of the marine guard on board a ship of the line, or a frigate.
3. The commanding officer of marines at head quarters, and at each of the navy yards.

NOTE.—The sea and other service affixed to the names of officers in the Register, is computed to the 1st January, 1853. As a general rule, the "sea service," with which an officer is credited, is for duty performed under orders from the Department, as part of the complement of a vessel of war, belonging to the Navy, in commission for sea service.—Officers on the Coast Survey are allowed sea service only for the time they are actually afloat. No credit is given for service in Revenue and Merchant vessels. In the column "unemployed," is included the time between date of warrant and date of first order from the Department for service.

☛ The attention of officers is particularly called to the orders and regulations published in the latter part of the Register.

If any assistant surgeon shall have been absent from the United States on duty, at the time others of his date were examined, he shall, if not rejected at a subsequent examination, be entitled to the same rank with them; and if, from any cause, his relative rank cannot be assigned to him, he will retain his original position on the register.

One ration per day only shall be allowed to all officers when attached to vessels for sea service.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, no allowance shall hereafter be made to any officer in the naval service of the United States, for drawing bills, for receiving or disbursing money, or transacting any business for the Government of the United States, nor shall he be allowed servants, or pay for servants, or clothing or rations for them; or pay for the same, nor shall any allowance be made to him for rent of quarters, or to pay rent for the furniture, or for lights or fuel, or transporting baggage. It is hereby declared, that the yearly allowance provided in this act is all the pay, compensation, and allowance, that shall be received under any circumstances whatever, by any such officer or person, except for travelling expenses, when under orders, for which ten cents per mile shall be allowed.

Approved March 3, 1835.

[PUBLIC—NO. 67.]

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE PAY OF PURSERS AND OTHER OFFICERS OF THE NAVY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all purchases of clothing, groceries, stores, and supplies of every description for the use of the navy, as well for vessels in commission as for yards and statiops, shall be made with and out of the public moneys appropriated for the support of the navy, under such directions and regulations as may be made by the Executive for that purpose; and it shall not be lawful for pursers, or other officers or persons holding commission or employment in the naval service, to procure stores or any other articles or supplies for, and dispose thereof to the officers or to the crew, during the period of their enlistment, on or for their own account or benefit; nor shall any profit or per centage upon stores or supplies be charged to, or received from, persons in the naval service, other than those which are hereinafter prescribed.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted That it shall be the duty of the Executive to provide such rules and regulations for the purchase, preservation, and disposition of all articles, stores, and supplies for persons in the navy, as may be necessary for the safe and economical administration of that branch of the public service.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the pay, rations, allowances, and other emoluments authorized by the existing laws and regulations, the annual pay of pursers, shall be as follows, viz: when attached to vessels in commission for sea service, they shall receive,

For ships of the line	$3,500
For frigates or razes	3,000
For sloops of war and steamers of first class	2,000
For brigs, and schooners, and steamers, less than first class	1,500
On duty at navy yards at Boston, New York, Norfolk, and Pensacola	2,500
At Portsmouth, Philadelphia, and Washington	2,000
At naval stations, within the United States	1,500
And in receiving ships at Boston, New York, and Norfolk	2,500
And at other places	1,500
On leave or waiting orders, the same pay as surgeons.

And it is hereby expressly declared, that the yearly pay provided in this act is all the pay, compensation and allowance that shall be received, under any circumstances, by pursers, except one ration each per day when attached to vessels for sea service, and except also for travelling expenses when under orders, for which ten cents per mile shall be allowed.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to affect the bonds which have heretofore been given by pursers in the navy, but the same shall remain in full force and effect, as if this law had not been passed; and the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized and required to demand and receive from them, or any of them, new bonds with sufficient sureties, in all cases in which he may consider the same necessary and expedient; and in case any purser shall neglect or refuse to give such new bond, it shall be the duty of the Executive to dismiss him forthwith from the service.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the rules and regulations which shall be made in conformity with the provisions of this act shall be laid before Congress at their next session.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for a purser in the navy to advance or loan any sum or sums of money, public or private, or any article or commodity whatever, or any credit, to any officer in the naval service, under any pretence whatever.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act shall go into effect, within the United States, from the date of its passage; and in vessels abroad at the beginning of the quarter after its official receipt.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That pursers attached to, and doing duty in, navy yards at Boston, New York and Norfolk, and sea-going vessels of a larger class than sloops of war, shall be authorized to appoint a clerk, or assistant, to be approved by the commanding officer of such yard or vessel; and the yearly compensation of said clerk shall be as follows, viz: in a frigate, or navy yard at Boston, New York, and Norfolk

.....	$500
In a ship of the line	700

Said assistant or clerk shall have the privileges which are allowed to the clerk of the commanding officer; and each purser and clerk, while attached to vessels in commission, shall receive one ration per day.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That all stores of pursers on board ships in commission shall be taken by the Government at a fair valuation, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts which may be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, shall be, and are hereby, repealed.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passage of this act, the annual pay of the forward warrant officers of the navy of the United States shall be as follows: for boatswains, gunners, carpenters, and sailmakers, when on duty on board ships of the line, and in the three navy yards at Boston, New York, and Norfolk, eight hundred dollars; on other duty, seven hundred dollars; when on leave of absence or awaiting orders, the said officers shall receive five hundred dollars for the first ten years, and after, six hundred dollars.

[SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That whenever an officer shall perform the duty of a higher grade by order of the Secretary of the Navy, or the commander of a fleet or squadron, or ship acting singly on foreign service, such officer shall be entitled to receive the pay of such higher grade during the time he performs the duty in that grade, and no longer; and no allowance shall be made for performing such service hereafter, unless so ordered. Repealed 17th June, 1844.]

Approved August 26, 1842.

[PUBLIC, NO. 81.]

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH AND REGULATE THE NAVY RATION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the navy ration shall consist of the following daily allowance of provisions for each person:

One pound of salted pork, with half a pint of peas or beans; or one pound of salted beef, with half a pound of flour, and a quarter of a pound of raisins, dried apples, or other dried fruits; or one pound of salt beef, with half a pound of rice, two ounces of butter, and two ounces of cheese, together with fourteen ounces of biscuit, one quarter of an ounce of tea, or one ounce of coffee, or one ounce of cocoa; two ounces of sugar, and one gill of spirits; and of a weekly allowance of half a pound of pickels or cranberries, half a pint of molasses, and half a pint of vinegar.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That fresh meat may be substituted for salt beef or pork, and vegetables or sour crout for the other articles usually issued with the salted meats, allowing one and a quarter pounds of fresh meat for one pound of salted beef or pork, and regulating the quantity of vegetables or sour crout so as to equal the value of those articles for which they may be substituted.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That should it be necessary to vary the above described daily allowance, it shall be lawful to substitute one pound of soft bread, or one pound of flour, or half a pound of rice, for fourteen ounces of biscuit; half a pint of wine for a gill of spirits; half a pound of rice for half a pint of beans or peas; half pint of beans or peas for half a pound of rice.

When it may be deemed expedient by the President of the United States, Secretary of the Navy, commander of a fleet or squadron, or of a single ship when not acting under the authority of another officer on foreign service, the articles of butter, cheese, raisins, dried apples, or other dried fruits, pickels, and molasses, may be substituted for each other and for spirits: Provided, the article substituted shall not exceed in value the article for which it may be issued, according to the scale of prices which is or may be established for the same.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in case of necessity the daily allowance of provisions may be diminished or varied by the discretion of the seniors officer present in command, but payment shall be made to the persons whose allowance shall be thus diminished, according to the scale of prices which is or may be established for the same; but a commander who shall thus make a diminution or variation, shall report to his commanding officer, or to the Navy Department, the necessity for the same, and give to the purser written orders specifying particularly the diminution or reduction which is to be made.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That no commissioned officer or midshipman, or any person under twenty-one years of age, shall be allowed to draw the spirit part of the daily ration; and all other persons shall be permitted to relinquish that part of their ration, under such restrictions as the President of the United States may authorize; and to every person who, by this section, is prohibited from drawing, or who may relinquish, the spirit part of his ration, there shall be paid, in lieu thereof, the value of the same in money, according to the prices which are or may be established for the same.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act shall go into effect in the United States on the first day of the succeeding quarter after it becomes a law, and in vessels abroad on the first day of the succeeding quarter after its official receipt; that any acts and parts of acts which may be contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of the act, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Approved August 29, 1842.

[PUBLIC—NO. 85.]

AN ACT TO REORGANIZE THE NAVY DEPARTMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act, approved February seventh, eighteen hundred and fifteen, entitled "An act to alter and amend the several acts for establishing the Navy Department, by adding thereto a Board of Commissioners," be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be attached to the Navy Department the following bureaux, to wit:

1. A bureau of Navy Yards and Docks.
2. A bureau of Construction, Equipment, and Repair.
3. A bureau of Provisions and Clothing.
4. A bureau of Ordnance and Hydrography.
5. A bureau of Medicine and Surgery.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint from the captains in the naval service a chief for each of the bureaux of navy yards and docks, and of ordnance and hydrography, who shall each receive a salary of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, in lieu of all other compensation whatever, of the naval service; and shall in like manner, appoint a chief of the bureau of construction, equipment, and repair, who shall be a skillful naval constructor, and shall also appoint a chief of the bureau of provisions and clothing, who shall each receive for his services three thousand dollars per annum; and shall in like manner appoint from the surgeons of the navy a chief of the bureau of medicine and surgery, who shall receive for his services two thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint the following clerks, to wit; For the offices of Secretary of the Navy a chief clerk, who shall receive for his service two thousand dollars per annum; one registering clerk, who shall receive for his services one thousand four hundred dollars per annum; three recording clerks, who shall receive for their services each one thousand dollars per annum, one principal corresponding clerk, who shall receive for his services one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and two assistant corresponding clerks, who shall receive for their services each twelve hundred dollars per annum; one warrant clerk, who shall receive for his services twelve hundred dollars per annum, and one miscellaneous clerk, who shall receive for his services eight hundred dollars per annum.

For the bureau of navy yards, and docks, one civil engineer, who shall receive for his services two thousand dollars per annum; one draughtsman, who shall receive for his services one thousand dollars per annum; one chief clerk, who shall receive for his services one thousand four hundred dollars per annum; and two assistant clerks, one of whom shall receive for his services one thousand dollars per annum, and the other shall receive for his services eight hundred dollars per annum.

For the bureau of construction, equipment, and repair, one assistant constructor and draughtsman, who shall receive for his services the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars per annum; and four clerks, one of whom shall receive for his services fourteen hundred dollars per annum, and the others shall receive for their services one thousand dollars per annum, each.

For the bureau of provision and clothing, one chief clerk, who shall receive for his services one thousand four hundred dollars per annum; and two clerks, one of whom shall receive for his services one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and the other shall receive for his services eight hundred dollars per annum.

For the bureau of ordnance and hydrography, one draughtsman, who shall receive for his services one thousand dollars per annum; and three clerks, one of whom shall receive for his services twelve hundred dollars per annum, and the others shall receive for their services one thousand dollars per annum each.

For the bureau of medicine and surgery, two clerks, one of whom shall receive for his services twelve hundred dollars per annum, and the other shall receive for his services eight hundred dollars per annum; and one assistant surgeon, who shall receive for his services not less than the highest pay of his grade in the service.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall assign and distribute among the said bureaus such of the duties of the Navy Department as he shall judge to be expedient and proper; and all the duties of the said bureaus shall be performed under the authority of the Secretary of the Navy, and their orders shall be considered as emanating from him, and shall have full force and effect as such.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed to each bureau a messenger, who shall receive for his services a compensation not exceeding seven hundred dollars per annum.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the chief of each bureau hereby established shall be authorized to frank all communications from his bureau; and all communications to his bureau, on the business thereof, shall be free of postage.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the books, records, and papers, now belonging to the office of the Navy Commissioner, shall be distributed among the bureaus, according to the nature of their duties respectively; and the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to provide for each bureau such books of record and accounts, and such stationery, as may be found necessary; for which purpose the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated, payable out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the unexpended balance of the appropriation for clerks in the office of the Secretary of the Navy, and the unexpended balance of the appropriation for the Commissioners of the Navy, their secretary and clerks, together with such additional sums as may be necessary to carry this law into effect, be, and the same are hereby, appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall, if the same can be done without detriment to the public service, appoint, with their consent, officers of the navy, not above the grade of lieutenants, to perform the duties of any clerkship created by this act (except as herein otherwise provided,) who shall receive each for their services not more than nine hundred dollars per annum, including their regular pay and rations; but the appointment of any officer in the navy, to any of the offices or clerkships in this act, shall in no manner whatever interfere with his grade in the service.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts authorizing the President of the United States, or Secretary of the proper department, under his direction, to transfer any portion of the moneys appropriated for a particular branch of expenditure in that department, to be applied to another branch of expenditure in the same department, be, and are hereby, so far as relates to the Department of the Navy, repealed.

Approved August 31, 1842.

[PUBLIC—NO. 93.]

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE APPOINTMENT AND PAY OF ENGINEERS IN THE NAVY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint the requisite number of chief engineers and assistant engineers, not to exceed one chief engineer, two first assistant, two second assistant, and three third assistant engineers for each steam ship of war, for the naval service of the United States, who shall be paid, when in naval service, as follows:

To the chief engineer, fifteen hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day; to the first assistant engineer, nine hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day; to the second assistant engineer, seven hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day; to the third assistant engineer, five hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day; the chief engineer shall be entitled to mess in the ward room of ships of war, and in all cases of prize money he shall share as a lieutenant; the first assistant engineer shall share as a lieutenant of marines; the second assistant engineer shall share as a midshipman; the third assistant engineer shall share as the forward officers: but neither the chief nor the assistant engineers shall hold any other rank than as engineers.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall be authorized to enlist and employ the requisite number of firemen, who shall receive, each, thirty dollars per month and one ration per day; and the requisite number of coal heavers, who shall receive, each, eight-een dollars per month and one ration per day; and the said firemen and coal heavers shall, in all cases of prize money, share as seamen.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said chief engineer and assistant engineers, when waiting orders, shall be paid as follows; To the chief engineer, twelve hundred dollars per annum; to the first assistant engineer, seven hundred dollars per annum; to the second assistant engineer, five hundred dollars per annum; to the third assistant engineer, three hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint a skilful and scientific engineer in chief, who shall receive for his services the sum of three thousand dollars per annum, and shall perform such duties as the Secretary of the Navy shall require of him touching that branch of the service.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy shall be authorized to prescribe a uniform for the said chief engineers and assistant engineers, and to make all necessary rules and regulations for the proper arrangement and government of the corps of engineers and assistant engineers not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States. The said engineers and assistant engineers shall be, in all respects, subject to the laws, rules, and regulations of the naval service, in like manner, with other officers of the service.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said chief engineers shall be appointed by commission, and the assistant engineers shall be appointed by warrant from the Secretary of the Navy in such form as he may prescribe.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy be, and he is hereby, authorized to establish, at such places as he may deem necessary, suitable depots of coal, or other fuel, for the supply of steam ships of war.

Approved August 31, 1842.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved March 3d, 1845.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That no more than one hundred and eighty passed midshipmen, and those senior in rank, shall at the same time receive the pay fixed by law for that class of officers.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That midshipmen shall hereafter be appointed from each State and Territory, with reference and in proportion, as near as may be, to the number of representatives and delegates in Congress; and that, until such a proportion shall have been established, all future appointments shall be made from such States and Territories as have not their relative proportion of midshipmen on the navy list, whenever there are suitable applicants from such States or Territories; And provided, further, That in all cases of appointment, the individual selected shall be an actual resident of the State from which the appointment purports to be made, and that the District of Columbia be considered as a Territory in this behalf.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act entitled "An act to regulate the pay of the navy of the United States," approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, as provides that no officer shall be put on furlough but at his own request, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That, in lieu of the mode heretofore provided by law, the engineer in chief and chief engineers of the navy shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no more than one purser, doing duty at any navy yard, shall, at the same time, be entitled to the pay fixed by law for that service.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved March 3, 1847.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c., * * * And there shall be allowed, instead of the sum now allowed by law three cents per day in lieu of the spirit rations in the navy, to be paid monthly to such persons as may elect to receive the same, who shall actually draw their rations in kind.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the pay of firemen and coal-heavers employed in the naval service shall hereafter be fixed by the President of the United States in the same manner as is now provided by law for the pay of other petty officers, and of seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines: and so much of the act of Congress, approved August thirty first, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, entitled "An act to regulate the appointment and pay of engineers in the Navy of the United States," as fixes the pay of firemen and coal-heavers, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That when any master in the navy, or passed midshipman, holding an acting appointment as master from the Secretary of the Navy, has performed or shall hereafter perform the duty of a lieutenant, under an order of the commander of the vessel to which he was or shall be at the time attached, to supply a deficiency in the established complement of lieutenants of said vessel, whether belonging to a squadron or on separate service, which order shall have been subsequently approved by the Secretary of the Navy, shall be allowed the pay of a master for the period or periods during which he shall have performed such duty.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That in calculating for the pay of surgeons in the navy hereafter, the time upon the graduated scale of pay shall be reckoned from their original entry into the service.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Navy be and he is hereby directed to report to Congress, at the commencement of the next session, the number of persons in the naval service flogged in each of the years eighteen hundred and forty-six and eighteen hundred and forty-seven, specifying the name of the ship, the offence, the sentence, and the number of lashes inflicted; and it shall be his duty to make a similar report for each year thereafter. (See Act Approved September 28, 1850.)

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the number of professors of mathematics in the navy shall not exceed twelve; that they shall be appointed and commissioned by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by order of the Secretary of the Navy, at the naval school, the observatory, and on board ships of war, in instructing the midshipmen of the navy, or otherwise. That when on duty, the pay of a professor of mathematics shall be at the rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, with a ration; and when on leave of absence or waiting orders the pay shall be at the rate of eight hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the proviso of the act of August fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-two, limiting the number of officers of the navy of the grade of midshipmen to the number that were in service on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and forty-one, be and is hereby so modified as to authorize the appointment of officers of that grade, to the number of four hundred and sixty-four; Provided, that the appointments shall be made according to the directions of the fifth section of the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-five, entitled "An act making appropriations for the naval service, for the year ending thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and forty six:" and in appointing from each State, hereafter, its proportion of officers of that grade, the appointments shall be apportioned, as nearly as practicable, equally among the several Congressional districts therein.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passage of this act the annual pay of boat-swains, gunners, carpenters, and sailmakers at the navy yard at Pensacola, shall be the same as now allowed by law to the forward warrant officers at the navy yards at Boston, New York and Norfolk.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the restriction established by the fourth section of the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and forty-five, whereby no more than one hundred and eighty passed midshipmen, and those senior in rank, shall at the same time receive the pay fixed by law for that class of officers, be suspended in its operation from the passage of this act, until the class of eighteen hundred and forty-one and eighteen hundred and forty-two shall have been examined, and the relative rank established among those who shall pass their examination.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill approved March 3d, 1849.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the pay allowed by law, a purser when, by order of the Secretary of the Navy attached to, and doing duty at, the Naval Station of California, shall receive the same pay as if attached to a frigate in commission for sea service; Provided, That not more than one purser shall, at the same time, be attached to the said station on general or special duty.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passage of this act, all prize money arising from captures made by vessels of the navy of the United States, received by the marshal who shall make sale of such prizes, shall, within sixty days after such sale, deposit the net proceeds, after paying all charges, as now provided by law, into the treasury of the United States; and all money now in the hands of prize agents shall also be deposited in the treasury, to be distributed as now provided by law; such part thereof as may belong to the officers and crews of the vessels of the navy shall be paid to them under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, and the law authorizing the appointment of prize agents is hereby repealed.

Joint Resolution of Congress, approved March 3, 1849.

That the accounting officers of the Treasury are authorized and directed to credit pursers of the navy with payments made by them for carrying on hostilities against Mexico, during the late war with that Republic, whether the expenditures were made on land or water; Provided, The said payments shall have been made under orders of the naval officer in command, and approved by the Secretary of the Navy; and provided that satisfactory vouchers are produced to establish such payments.

SEC. 2. And be it further resolved, That every disbursement of public moneys, or disposal of public stores, made by order of any commanding officer of the navy, which shall be objected to by the accounting officers of the treasury, in the settlement of the accounts of any disbursing officer, shall nevertheless be allowed to such disbursing officer; and the commanding officer by whose order such disbursement or disposal was made, shall be held accountable for the same; Provided, That satisfactory evidence of such order, and of the payment of public moneys, or disposal of public stores under the same, shall be produced.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved September 28, 1850.

Provided, That flogging in the navy and on board vessels of commerce be and the same is hereby abolished from and after the passage of this act. And that no midshipman in the navy shall be appointed from any Congressional district having at the time of appointment more than two officers of that grade in the navy from such district. And whenever an appointment shall be made from any State, the person so appointed shall be an actual resident of the Congressional district from which the appointment purports to be made. And Provided further, That such Congressional district of any State as may not have any midshipman in the navy at the time an appointment may be made from said State, shall be entitled to at least one appointment before any other shall be made from any district of the State having one or more officers of that grade in the navy.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved August 31, 1852.

And hereafter no appointment of Midshipman, Acting Midshipman, or pupil at any Naval School in the Navy, shall be made, unless recommended by the member of Congress representing the district in which the applicant resides, in the same manner that Cadets at West Point are now appointed; and that the Secretary of the Navy is hereby required to report to Congress, at its second session, the number and names of appointments to the Naval School, which have been made, and the district and State whence each one comes, and the number of vacancies then existing at said school, with the congressional district which may be entitled to supply them; and a statement of the order in which the remainder of the Congressional District shall be entitled to supply all future and accruing vacancies, so far as it may be determined by existing law, or by circumstances.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved March 3, 1851.

Provided, That no commutation of rations shall be allowed, except to officers and their attendants, and for the spirit part of the ration; and no person not actually attached to, and doing duty on board a sea going or receiving vessel, and the petty officers, seamen, and ordinary seamen, attached to the ordinary of the Navy Yards, shall be allowed a ration. And provided further, That no rations stopped for the sick on board vessels shall be credited to the Hospital Fund, but shall remain and be accounted for by the Purser as part of the provisions of the vessels; and that the rations of officers and others of the Navy, sent to Hospitals on shore, shall be credited to the Hospital Fund, at the cost only thereof; and the Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, with the approbation of the Secretary of the Navy, shall prescribe all such regulations in relation to stopping such rations, as will insure a faithful accountability for the rations stopped for the sick on board vessels, and to insure due credit to the Hospital Fund for the rations at cost of those sent to the hospitals on shore; and the said regulations to go into effect on the first day of the succeeding month after their official receipt at yards, stations, and on board vessels.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any assistant engineer shall have been absent from the United States on duty at the time others of his date were examined, he shall, if not rejected at a subsequent examination, be entitled to the same rank with them; and if from any cause his relative rank cannot be assigned to him he shall retain his original position on the Register.

From the Naval Appropriation Bill, approved August 31, 1852.

It being provided, that so much of the act approved March 3, 1851, entitled "An act making appropriations for the Naval service of the year ending June 30, 1852," as provides "that no commutation of rations shall be allowed, except to officers and their attendants, and for the spirit part of the ration," be and the same is hereby repealed.

And the pay of Chaplains in the Navy shall be one thousand dollars on leave, or waiting orders, or fifteen hundred dollars while on duty.

And the Navy Agent at Memphis, for the time during which he has performed, or may perform, the duties of Purser, in addition to his own, shall be allowed and paid the annual salary of a Purser on duty at navy yards of the second class, which shall not be in addition to his commissions, but in lieu thereof; and the salary of the assistant to the Purser for the navy yard at Kittery, Maine, who also discharges the duties of clerk and steward, shall be seven hundred and fifty dollars; and the pay of the first clerk to the Commandant "at the navy yards at Norfolk, New York and Boston, shall be at the rate of one thousand dollars per annum;" and that the "second clerk to the Commandant" at the same yards, shall be at the rate of eight hundred dollars per annum from and after the passage of this act.

GENERAL ORDER.

All officers of the navy, not on duty, will keep the Department, at all times, advised of their address.

All officers, on being detached from duty, will immediately inform the Department of their intended place of residence, and notice must be given of any contemplated change, before such change shall have been made.

All officers will promptly acknowledge the receipt of orders, and inform the Department immediately on their having reported in obedience to them.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, January 30, 1846.

GEORGE BANCROFT.

GENERAL ORDER.

UNITED STATES NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, February 18, 1846.

It having been repeatedly represented to the Department, that confusion arises from the use of the words "Larboard" and "Starboard" in consequence of their similarity of sound, the word "Port" is hereafter to be substituted for "Larboard."

GEORGE BANCROFT.

GENERAL ORDER.

Vacancies in the grade of Masters may be filled by the oldest Passed Midshipmen who are worthy of advancement.

The fitness of the senior Passed Midshipmen for advancement may be established by an examination, or by the records of the Department, or by the testimony of the officers under whom they have served, or in such other manner as may be deemed proper. Those who may be found not suited to be advanced, may be placed on furlough or dropped from the list.

The Masters thus appointed will receive regular warrants, and will also remain in the line of promotion.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 14, 1846.

GEORGE BANCROFT.

GENERAL ORDER.

No person shall hereafter receive the appointment of Naval Constructor in the Navy of the United States, unless he shall have been examined and approved by a board, to be designated for that purpose, by the Secretary of the Navy.

No person shall hereafter receive the appointment of boatswain, gunner, carpenter, or sailmaker in the navy of the United States, unless he shall have been examined and approved by a board, to be designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Navy.

GEORGE BANCROFT.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, August 17, 1846.

GENERAL ORDER.

Surgeons of the Fleet and Surgeons of more than twelve years, will rank with Commanders;

Surgeons of less than twelve years, with Lieutenants;

Passed Assistant Surgeons, next after Lieutenants;

Assistant Surgeons, not passed, next after Masters.

Commanding and Executive officers, of whatever grade, when on duty, will take precedence over all Medical officers.

This order confers no authority to exercise military command, and no additional right to quarters.

GEORGE BANCROFT.

REGULATION.

PILOTAGE.

The regulation of the Department on the subject of pilotage, dated July 3, 1843, is hereby rescinded.

Ships of war will hereafter receive pilots, and pay them according to the laws of the States, respectively, in which they may be employed.

Pilots employed, however, to take vessels out of port, shall not be paid until they shall actually go on board; and they shall not be called on board until the ship is ready to proceed to sea.

Pilots bringing vessels from sea will not be detained any longer than is absolutely necessary.

J. Y. MASON.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, April 3, 1847.

GENERAL ORDER.

Pursers of more than twelve years, will rank with Commanders;

Pursers of less than twelve years with Lieutenants;

Pursers will rank with Surgeons, according to date of commission;

Commanding and Executive officers of whatever grade, when on duty, will take precedence of all Pursers.

This order confers no authority to exercise military command, and no additional right to quarters.

J. Y. MASON.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, May 27, 1847.

GENERAL ORDER.

All officers of the Navy, not on duty, whose names are borne on the books of a Naval Station for pay, will, on the receipt of orders for duty, enclose a copy of the same to the commandant of the station.

And all officers returning from sea, under orders or permission from their commanding officer, will, immediately on their arrival in the United States, report in writing to the Department, enclosing a copy of the order or permission under which they return.

J. Y. MASON.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, March 1, 1849.

CIRCULAR TO PURSERS.

After the first day of March, 1850, all Pursers on duty within the United States will make their requisitions for money direct upon the Navy Department and its Bureaux, instead of upon the Navy Agents, as has, heretofore, been the practice in some cases.

The approval of Pursers' requisitions by Commanding Officers will be required as evidence in favor of the wants of the service, and no requisition will be answered unless it bears upon it the signature of the Commanding Officer.

WM. BALLARD PRESTON.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, February 23, 1850.

DECISION.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, May 9, 1851.

"The terms 'Commanding and Executive officers of whatever grade,' used in the General Orders of this Department, of August 31, 1846, and May 27, 1847, are to be construed and held according to the custom and usage of the naval service of the United States; the rights and privileges of all Commanding and Executive officers of whatever grade, are to be respected at all times and on all occasions during the entire periods of their service as such; and officers of the Navy are to be considered as on duty at all times when acting under orders or instructions from the Navy Department or their commanding officers."
